

SPOTTED LANTERNFLY LIFE CYCLE

| EGG MASS | 1 - 3RD INSTAR | 4TH INSTAR | ADULT |
|---|---|---|---|
| September to May Each egg mass is 1 inch in size & contains roughly 35 eggs | Late March to June The 1st instar is small (roughly the size of a tick) and grows to ¼ inch size (3rd instars) | Late May to July Bright red & ½ inch in size | July to December From head to wing tip 1 inch in size |
| 1 inch (actual size)  | ¼ inch (actual size)  | ½ inch (actual size)  | 1 inch (actual size)  |
|  |  |  |  |

Use the QR code to report a suspected spotted lanternfly.
 For questions, email lanternfly@agr.georgia.gov.